*For Heads of Departments and
Year 5 and 6 English teachers*

TUESDAY 8TH FEBRUARY 2022

4.00PM TO 5.00PM

Overview

This one hour webinar is designed for English teachers and will take a broad look at inspiring pupils whilst maintaining rigour.

Webinar Content:

- What to read in class and how to develop learning through reading?
- What to teach on Monday?
- Successful units of work

Threaded into the webinar will be opportunities for delegates to share ideas and to ask each other and Sarah questions.

Speaker: Sarah North

The webinar will be led by experienced English teacher and private tutor, Sarah North, member of the ISEB 13+ Common Entrance and CASE setting team for English and team leader for the 11+ Common Entrance setting team.

Sarah is also a member of the ISEB's Academic Committee Team for Humanities. She is author of the book, 'Grammatix', published by Jonathan Catt and originally devised as a complete grammar teaching resource for KS2 and KS3 English teachers in her department as they prepare pupils for pre-tests, CE and CASE.

Details

The Webinar will be online, using Zoom, and delegates will be sent a link in order to sign in.
